*He looked around at them
with anger; he was grieved

Mark 3, verse 5.

Welcome:

A warm welcome is offered to all attending the services in the churches of this Chaplaincy. We offer a special welcome to visitors and newcomers.

Collect.

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Introduction and Call to Worship

Let us come before God today, reminding ourselves of the divine power of good, wholeness and healing at work in Jesus. Let us also recognise and use to good purpose the power of the Holy Spirit within us.

Hymns today at Mojacar.

205	Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God;
379	Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
29	Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
19	All my hope on God is founded.
370	Joy to the world! The Lord is come:

Today's Readings.

First Reading 1 Samuel 3:1-10 [11-20]

Samuel mistakes God's call as he lies asleep in the temple for Eli's voice, but Eli realises that it is the Lord. God tells Samuel that Eli's house will be punished because his sons blasphemed God. Samuel is afraid to tell Eli, but Eli accepts the news.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 4:5-12

Paul explains that he and Timothy do not proclaim themselves but Jesus Christ. Although afflicted they are not crushed, carrying the death of Jesus, whose life is made visible in them.

Gospel: Mark 2:23 – 3:6

The Pharisees complain that Jesus' disciples have been plucking grain on the Sabbath. Jesus explains that there is nothing wrong with someone hungry gathering food because the Sabbath was made for people. The Pharisees are even more displeased when Jesus heals a man and plot to destroy him.

Introduction to the Peace.

In the Lord is our peace, the peace that the world cannot give. The peace of the Lord...

Post Communion Prayer:

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Blessing.

May God draw you close, enfold you in love and give you strength and wisdom to follow in the paths of righteousness. And the blessing of God almighty...

OTHER INFORMATION.

Thoughts for this Week.

God is like Oxygen, you can't see him, but you need him to survive. Happiness comes when we stop complaining about the troubles we have and offer thanks to him, for all the troubles we don't have!

A Prayer for this week.

My Father in Heaven, I know that I am not perfect, I know I sometimes forget to pray to you. I know sometimes I question my faith, I know sometimes I lose my temper, but I thank you for loving me unconditionally and giving me another day to start over again. Amen.
